12 to 21 August 2022

Welcome

feva is a constituted community not-for-profit organisation run by a team of volunteers. Each year, we host a series of arts-based events around Knaresborough, including music and spoken word events, arts workshops and our much-loved arts trail, as well as a wide variety of other events such as Picnic in the Park and Knaresborough Lions' Beer Festival. This year, we have lots of fun for the whole family! We can't wait to see you there! Please visit our website www.feva.info and follow us on social media for up-to-date information and photos.

Knaresborough Festival of Entertainment and Visual Arts

Be a friend of feva

What is Knaresborough feva?

The name feva means 'the festival of entertainment and visual arts' and is the annual Knaresborough Festival held over 10 days in the middle of August each year. feva is run on a not-for-profit basis by volunteers and provides an exciting focus during the summer holidays as the town shifts up a gear with a huge number of events for all ages and tastes, for both residents and visitors to Knaresborough.

Become a Friend of feva

For just £10 a year for individuals and £50 for corporate members, people become Friends of feva and help preserve the continued success of the Festival. Friends assist in many ways for example by getting involved in staging events, mounting artistic projects and volunteering during the Festival.

The benefits of becoming a Friend

For Individuals: Friends are able to enjoy:

- A Priority Booking Period
- Early Programme Review
- Invitation to 'Eve of feva' party and other events
- Involvement in one of the most important summer festivals in the North, helping to put Knaresborough on the map

For Companies: In addition, for those taking out a corporate Friend of feva membership your business will be able to enjoy:

- Event sponsorship opportunities of your choice
- Corporate entertainment
- Alignment with community good neighbour activities

Become a feva Friend and help us build on the successes since feva began as the Knaresborough Festival in 1996.
