What is Knaresborough feva?

The name feva means 'the festival of entertainment and visual arts' and is the annual Knaresborough Festival held over 10 days in the middle of August each year. feva is run on a not-for-profit basis by volunteers and provides an exciting focus during the summer holidays as the town shifts up a gear with a huge number of events for all ages and tastes, for both residents and visitors to Knaresborough.
